What is the Police & Community Relations Council and who are our members?

We are a voluntary, independent and self-constituted body of private citizens responsible to our members and the council. We are all residents of or work within the area of Precinct 8. Some of us are individuals, others are leaders of community groups and some represent local businesses.

What is the PCRC Mission Statement?

To help make Baltimore County a better place to live through the mutual understanding of the respective problems and concerns of the Baltimore County Police Department and the citizens of Baltimore County, the role of law enforcement agencies and the responsibility of the entire community for law enforcement.

To develop through the involvement of community leaders, clergy, business owners and executives, parents, police officers, social workers, educators, and others, a county wide consciousness of the need for mutual cooperation and commitments in the improvement of, and respect for, the maintenance of law and order.

To appraise Baltimore County citizens of their role and responsibility in preserving law and order through various programs.

To secure greater cooperation with the Baltimore County Police Department through education and awareness.

To promote better communication between the public and the Baltimore County Police Department.

To acquaint the general public with police operations.

To act as a liaison between the Baltimore County Police Department and the citizens of Baltimore County.

To report potential and actual violations of law to the police.

To assist the Baltimore County Police Department regarding problems of law enforcement, and make suggestions for improving public services.

To develop various programs to improve and maintain law enforcement within Baltimore County.

Are there specific programs sponsored by PCRC 8 ?

Yes - we sponsor an "Officer of the Year".

Each May we have a special meeting to celebrate the Officer of the Year.

We coordinate and solicit donations for an annual "Officer of the Year award.

And at our December meeting we have a "Holiday Party" for all the officers, staff and PCRC members.

Regular meetings:

Are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month except July and August at Christus Victor Lutheran Church, 9833 Harford Rd., Carney, MD 21234 at 7:00 pm.

The typical agenda at our monthly meetings includes:

- Report by the Precinct Commander on crime trends and alerts
- Guest speakers on various topics of interest to the group
- Business of the organization
- Open forum for sharing information and voicing questions and concerns
